Seek Options For Police Building

On motion of Councilman Lou Hallacy of the special police headquarters study committee, City Council Wednesday night approved an appropriation of $2,000 for obtaining options on property for the proposed new police station for the city. This amount would cover option fees and necessary appraisals for such properties.

Councilman Morris Peerbolt reported on a meeting of the special space utilization committee on City Hall uses, and the committee feels that the present City Hall with some renovations could house all necessary functions including the Board of Public Works for the next 10 to 15 years, provided no great annexation changes are made.

Peerbolt spoke of the study on fire protection and air conditioning, and he said space currently occupied by District Court could be turned over to the Board of Public Works, hopefully within a year. He said this might involve moving the court temporarily to another place if the new police headquarters building is not resolved.

His motion to retain the services of Dean, Fairbrother, Gunther and Bouwman of Grand Rapids to conduct a structural analysis study of City Hall at a cost not to exceed $800 was unanimously approved. This study would determine the life expectancy of the building and the cost of repairs, if necessary. This firm had done the study on air conditioning and fire protection.

Peerbolt also reported on having attended an area planning meeting of township and county officials with the Department of Highways, reviewing five phases of road construction. City Manager William L. Bopf who also attended the meeting told state representatives his staff would be willing to cooperate in such planning.

Bopf also obtained Council approval in establishing a new unclassified position for a computer service administrator at a salary of $15,870, with review in six months.

Council denied a request from Robert J. Arendshorst for a new SDS-SDM license to be located at 46 East Eighth St. This action will be forwarded to the Michigan Liquor Control Commission. A letter from Mini-Stores Inc., 220 West Eighth St., objecting to the Arendshorst application was submitted earlier in the evening. Stanley Steketee of Mini-Stores also was present and told Council he previously had applied for such a license and had been told by the Liquor Control Commission that a survey would be made but had received no response.

A report from the city's traffic consultant commenting on yield signs on 29th and 30th Sts. at Washington Ave., the curve at 48th St. and M-40 and the intersection of 48th St. and M-40 near the Beech-Nut plant. The consultant recommended no change in yield signs, and recommended that the possibility of having right turn lanes at M-40 and US-31 be referred to the State Highway Department.

On recommendation of the city manager, the city attorney was instructed to convey to local legislators Council's concern with three proposed bills, opposing one to decrease state equalized valuations, opposing another to change the home rule act in proposed annexations which would require separate pluralities from annexed areas, city and township instead of the sum of the city and township; and approving a House Bill that would assess house trailers and mobile homes as real property instead of the $3 a month assessment which diverts $2 to schools and 50 cents each to cities and counties.

On the annexation bill, Bopf said passage would preclude all future annexation propositions.

Mennonites Seek Village Windmill

Two Canadians were in Holland Friday to learn all about windmills.

They are interested in having a windmill in their Mennonite Village Museum development in Steinbach which lies 35 miles southeast of Winnipeg, Manitoba, and all questions pointed to Holland, Mich., which had gone the route in importing Windmill De Zwaan for Holland's own Windmill Island.

And J. J. Reimer of Winnipeg, president of the Manitoba Mennonite Historical Society, and K. R. Barkman of the Manitoba Mennonite central committee learned a lot about windmills.

In fact, they were overwhelmed. Their plans do not include a towering giant like Windmill De Zwaan, only a small mill for their Dutch Mennonite Village, preferably a grain mill that would grind flour.

The village development lies on a 40-acre plot a mile and a half north of Steinbach on Provincial Highway 12. Begun in 1967, the village has its museum which is a relatively modern building to house Dutch Mennonite artifacts, and the start of a

3 Juveniles Are Charged In Breakins

Three Holland area juvenile boys, two 15-year-olds and one 16-year-old, were apprehended Monday and charged in connection with a series of breakins that occurred in Holland early Monday morning.

Officers from Holland Police Department worked with those from Ottawa County Sheriff's Department who had taken the breaking complaints at Smith-Douglass Company, Inc., on James St.; the Yum Yum Shoppe, 301 Douglas Ave., and Fogg Warehouse on Beech and Douglas.

A small amount of money, some miscellaneous items, cigarettes and candy were reported taken.

Holland police apprehended one of the youths while attempting to break into the Temple Building, 17 West 10th St., early Monday morning and returned later to find another boy. Both were referred to probate court on charges of breaking and entering.

Later Monday, Ottawa county officers picked up the third subject and charged him with possession of stolen property. He was also referred to probate court and released to his parents.

The other two boys were lodged in Ottawa County youth home.

Recreation Study OK'd For County

GRAND HAVEN — An extensive recreation study that covers all areas in Ottawa county, prepared by a team of professors from the department of urban and regional planning of the University of Wisconsin, was adopted in principle by the Board of Supervisors at a special meeting Monday.

The report, "Policies and Proposals," a part of the recreation study, will be reviewed by the board's planning committee and Chairman William Kennedy of Allendale, and will be presented to the Michigan Department of Natural Resources by April 1, along with recreation projects from townships and cities in the county. Federal funds may be allocated to Ottawa governmental units from the recreation bonding program. Prosecutor Calvin Bosman will also review the report.

Leo Jakobson and Barie Greenbie of the University of Wisconsin, who made a similar study in Muskegon county, outlined the report to the board Monday. The main proposal in the report was that a coordinating committee on recreation be established, to act as an advisory group.

The plan recommends that "special use" districts, designed to control development of two areas in the county, be established. One district is The "Shorelands" district, which includes a corridor of land along Lake Michigan and includes the tri-cities, Holland and Zeeland. Planning in this district would be especially concerned with the preservation of the dunes and other natural assets.

The other district named is the Grand River valley area, following the river basin, which extends east and west across the county. Planning here would be concerned with the preservation of marshlands and bayous and scenic drives and parks.

The planners urged that land be set aside by the county for recreation purposes, along lakes and rivers and other areas. Twelve recommendations were made in all, in an effort to preserve historical sites and make areas available for recreation purposes.

The board voted to invite Governor Milliken to attend a luncheon May 13 at Holland during his visit to Tulip Time. An invitation will be submitted by Chairman Kennedy, asking that pollution and environmental control issues be discussed.

The board rescinded action taken at the regular March session to discontinue "piping in" of music over the public address system in the county building. Employees in the building submitted a letter favoring the music. The music was to have been stopped April 1.

Police Cite Driver After 2-Car Collision

Cecil Woltman, 55, of 446 West 20th St., was ticketed by Holland police for failure to yield the right of way after the car he was driving collided with one driven by Jose Garcia, 23, of 756 Central, Zeeland, at the intersection of Maple Ave. and 10th St. at 5:38 p.m. Sunday.

Neither driver was reported injured, however, Arnold Rangel, 21, of 1605 Perry St., a passenger in the Garcia car, was referred to a family physician for treatment of minor injuries.

Ray Gutierrez, 27, of 217 West 14th St., also riding in the Garcia car, was not hurt, police said.

YES, WINTER AGAIN! — For a while it looked like spring was on its way, but King Winter came through with another knock-out blow and dumped four inches of snow on

Holland. And the rose bushes at Kollen Park yielded to seasonal caprices. This is how they looked at 1:30 a.m. today when snapped by a Sentinel photographer. (Sentinel photo)

4 More Inches Of Snow Falls

A combination of high and low pressure areas funneled cold air across the Midwest today dumping four inches of snow on Holland.

A see-saw pattern of clear bright sunshine at times blotted out by heavy snow was Nature's contribution in Holland today as mothers lectured children to dress warmly and wear boots and drivers proceeded with caution over snow-covered roads. It was 21 degrees at 11 a.m. today.

The cold weather pattern also dipped into the south, and frost and freeze warnings were in effect for Alabama and parts of northwestern Florida. Snow fell around the Great Lakes and into the Ohio River valley.

A brief snowstorm swept over New England Friday leaving up to seven inches of new snow in Maine and a light dusting elsewhere. Ski operators and enthusiasts loved it. Nonenthusiasts and drivers registered less cheerful comments.

Most of the western half of the nation enjoyed warmer weather and clear skies. On the west coast, a Pacific storm lashed some areas and gale warnings were posted along the Washington and Oregon coasts. Winds up to 55 miles an hour were recorded at Cape Blanco, Ore.

Roads in Allegan and Ottawa counties were snow-covered and slippery. Ottawa sheriff's officers reported a car-trailer jackknifed on icy M-21 east of Byron Rd. at 1:29 a.m. today. There were no injuries. At 7:46 a.m. today, a car slid off the road into a ditch on 48th Ave. between Van Buren and M-21.

Allegan officers said a few cars were in the ditch but no serious accidents were reported.

Wrong Right Turn
Cars driven by Sidney Woudstra, 46, of 311 West 18th St., and Mary Elizabeth Vande Bunte, 16, of 706 Larkwood, collided on Van Raalte Ave. at 21st St. at 4:59 p.m. Tuesday, according to Holland police who cited Woudstra for making an improper right turn.

City Has Heart, Mother Gets Ride To Graduation

Holland does have a heart—a big heart.

Mrs. Torvio (Joe) Fierro, 182 West Eighth St., has a son, Robert Garcia Fierro, graduating at Fort Knox, Ky., on Friday and she wants to see him graduate.

After all, being the mother of six sons, five of them—so far—serving their country in four branches of the service ought to entitle a mother to see her son graduate.

A call today to Talk of the Town on WHTC brought immediate response in the way of funds for transportation. Shortly thereafter another phone call directed to Mrs. Fierro brought her the ride this afternoon to Fort Knox.

Mrs. Maria Martinez of Walnut St., has a son, Danny, who will also graduate from Fort Knox on Friday. She offered to take Mrs. Fierro and two granddaughters, Grace and Lou Leon, with her for the ceremonies.

Robert Garcia Fierro is the youngest, 19, in the Army. He has been preceded in the services by his four brothers, Capt. Louis Garcia, now in New Jersey; Staff Sgt. George Garcia in the Air Force; Navy Petty Officer 2 C Arthur Garcia and Edward Garcia in the Marines.

And the funds for transportation were started by another big hearted Hollander, Bruins by name, who started the ball rolling. About $30 had been collected by press time.

Hopkins Is New Safety Officer

Holland Police Chief Leslie Van Beveren Tuesday announced the appointment of Russell Hopkins to the position of School Safety Education Officer. He replaces Glenn Bareman who resigned in order to enter private business.

Officer Hopkins has been with the Holland Police Department since 1961, and has held the rank of Corporal since January of 1967. Officer Hopkins has completed the prescribed courses at the Grand Rapids Police Academy, the School of Criminal Investigation at Michigan State University as well as Riot Control training and Command Officers Training School.

He is also a certified breathalyzer operator and has been director of the breathalyzer program for the Holland Police Department since its inception in 1967. He is presently completing studies for an Associate degree from Grand Rapids Junior College.

Many in the Holland area are familiar with Officer Hopkins through his demonstrations of the versatility of the dog in police work with his trained police dog King.

Officer Hopkins is married to the former Thelma Vredevelde of Zeeland. They make their home on West 21st St., in Holland with their two children, Laurie, age 7 and David, 3.

Russell Hopkins

Chief Van Beveren also announced the appointment of Paul W. Michmerhuizen to the position of patrolman beginning March 30.

Michmerhuizen is presently employed by the city of Zeeland. He is a graduate of Holland Christian High School and the West Michigan Law Enforcement Academy.

Michmerhuizen and his wife, the former Kathi Bosma, presently make their home in Zeeland.

One-Car Accident Injures Pair

Two Holland girls were injured when the car they were in went out of control on slippery pavement on Riley St. just west of 132nd St. at 9:58 a.m. Saturday.

Driver Judy Miersma, 18, of 12074 New Holland St., received forehead abrasions and was released after treatment at Holland Hospital. Also released from the hospital after x-rays and treatment was her passenger, Judy Brouwer, 17, of 4680 120th Ave., who sustained bumps and bruises and possible back injuries.

Ottawa county sheriff's deputies who investigated said the car went off the north side of the road into a ditch and rolled over. No ticket was issued.

To Continue Bus Service Four Weeks

Council Seeks More Time to Study Its Alternate Proposals

With city bus service terminating March 28, City Council Wednesday night approved a four-week lease with the present operator which would extend service in the city another four weeks, thereby giving Council additional time to study alternatives.

This move was recommended by City Manager William L. Bopf who presented four other alternatives on buying or leasing equipment for a city-operated transportation program.

The four-week extension would involve a payment of $200 from the city for leasing two existing buses. The city also proposes to raise the current 25-cent fee to 50-cents for a one-way trip, and to record the extent of usage on average passenger loads over the test period. It also authorizes the present operator to raise his fare 50 cents at this time in order to allow a longer test period.

All buses operated by the city on the four-week lease period and the routes now in existence will remain the same. The city probably will retain the services of a present driver for the period.

His alternates follow:
Alternate 1—Used buses of the type now in operation can be obtained for approximately $1,000-$2,000 each. These are generally models in the early fifties. More recent models cost from $3,800 to $7,000 for a 1965 model. The present owner would sell any one of his four buses for approximately $1,000 each for any number desired.

Alternate 2—Small van type vehicles such as those produced by the Fleet Co. sell for no less than $13,000 each. A vendor recommends at least two such buses, and such a purchase would involve an investment of about $27,000.

Alternate 3—Small van type vehicles could be outfitted for eight to 10 passengers and could have special door mountings for more ready access at a cost of $3,500 each vehicle. Such vehicles could be obtained from local car dealers.

Alternate 4—It would be possible to lease some later model GMC fishbowl style buses for approximately $350 per month, but additional time might be required to explore all leasing possibilities of larger buses.

Alternate 5 (adopted by Council)—The present operator indicated he would lease two of his existing buses to the city for $200 for the four-week period following March 28. This would allow at least additional time to explore any alternate plans. He would also consider providing service under his responsibility for a subsidy of $600 for that same time period.

Holland and Inter-city Bus Lines informed Council March 4 that it was terminating service March 28 after 24½ years of service in the city. The company will continue charters, school bus runs and make rentals available. Continued decline of revenues and spiraling costs of operation brought about the decision. Owner Alvin Vander Kolk said.

Earlier in the Council meeting, a petition from the discussion Sunday School Class of First Reformed Church expressing concern over discontinuing bus service in the city was referred to the city manager.

FIGHT FIRE—Holland firemen chop and saw holes in the roof of the house owned by Harvey Ploggemars at 95 East 21st St. as fire swept through it and damaged the upstairs today. Firemen who received the call at 10:17 a.m. said the occupant of the upstairs apartment, Mrs. Gordon Boerman, was reportedly frying something when grease on the stove ignited and spread. The entire upstairs was gutted.

Firemen had to cut several holes in the roof as well as break out some windows to help extinguish it. There was smoke and water damage reported to the downstairs apartment occupied by Fred Graham. Firemen had three pieces of equipment and were at the scene for a good two hours. Estimate of damage was being determined.

THE WELFARE PROPOSAL

After a rather slow start, bit by bit, President Nixon's innovative approaches to our many problems are taking shape. One now working its way through the legislative mill is the guaranteed-income proposal to replace the welfare state. The failure of the latter has been established beyond question, particularly by its failure to provide incentives for honest work. "Work - fare" rather than "welfare," the latest Republican phrase - maker, Vice-President Spiro Agnew, calls it.

The proposal has certainly done a lot to remove those emotion-arousing labels of "liberal," "conservative," "Democrat" and "Republican." And that's a step forward. It is the brainchild of Daniel P. Moynihan, a Democratic advisor to a Republican president. Moreover, the proposal has passed its first major hurdle by a 21-3 favorable vote in the House Ways and Means Committee, chaired by Rep. Wilbur Mills, a conservative Democrat.

The proposal itself will no doubt be scrutinized carefully, and possibly amended, before final passage. For one thing, the recommended amounts, $1,600 for a family of four, are woefully inadequate, and there are misgivings in many quarters requiring mothers with pre-school children to work. There is opposition from the National Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO), as represented by its director, George E. Wiley.

At the other end of the spectrum, the U.S. Chamber of Commerce last week announced its opposition. When there is both approval and opposition from such diverse groups, one is led to suspect that, with proper amendments, something good may emerge. Whatever does is likely to be an improvement over the present welfare situation.

Sunday School Lesson

Sunday, March 22
God Gave His Son
Matthew 27:35-50
By C. P. Dame

This lesson tells about the most famous death that ever took place. Even though we may have studied this lesson before if we look at it more carefully and prayerfully we will see something we overlooked. The cross proclaims the love of God and the sinfulness of man.

I. Gentiles played a role in the story. Roman soldiers abused and mocked Jesus and nailed Him to the cross. Jews were excused from military service. Very likely these men were conscripts. They divided the Lord's garments among themselves but gambled for the robe. These men were ignorant and did not know what they were doing.

Governor Pilate was a Gentile. He ordered the superscription to be nailed to the cross which told about the crime of Jesus. All four gospels mention the writing but they differ slightly. They were written in three languages, Latin, Greek and Hebrew, the language of law, culture and religion. In three languages the name of Jesus was then proclaimed - now in many languages. Some day Jesus will be proclaimed Lord of Lords in every human language.

In mentioning Gentiles we must not overlook Pilate's wife who sent a message to her husband asking him not to have anything to do with that just man, Jesus, nor the centurion who had charge of the crucifixion and who called Jesus "a righteous man" and gave glory to God.

II. Jews had a part in the crucifixion. They plotted and charged Jesus with disloyalty to the Roman government and demanded His crucifixion. The religious leaders wanted Jesus out of the way for He was hurting their popularity and positions. The crowd that stood near the cross were for the most part Jews and they mocked Him and said that if He would come down from the cross and show that He was the Son of God, they would believe.

"Then were there two thieves crucified with Him"—they were bandits and very likely Jews. At first both reviled Jesus but Luke says that one repented before dying and was promised an entry into Paradise. Both Gentiles and Jews had a part in this crime. In reality we all played a role in view of the fact that we are sinners.

III. God forsook Jesus. For three hours there was darkness and at three o'clock Jesus said, "My God, my God, why has Thou forsaken me?" words found in Psalm 22:46, a Messianic Psalm. This was the first time Jesus was separated from His Father. This was the penalty He paid for man's sin.

Before dying a soldier moved by sympathy "took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed and gave Him a drink" and Jesus took it although He had refused wine offered Him three hours before, Jesus died voluntarily—for sinful men.

Finds Europe, Mid-East Tension-Filled but Cordial

G. T. Farabee, 14995 Ransom St., returned home last week Tuesday from a month's tour of Europe, the Middle East and North Africa. He reports there is tension throughout Israel, more tension spread to the air lines of Europe.

Some even refused to make scheduled flights to Tel-Aviv, says Farabee, who made the trip with a tour group of 30 persons. They also refused to fly to Cairo, Egypt. To get to Cairo from Izmir, Turkey, the group flew to Istanbul, then to Athens, and loaded, after much checking into a Romanian plane bound for Cairo.

To enter Israel from Beirut, Lebanon, the tour was compelled to fly to the island of Cyprus and from the Nicosia airport board an El-Al Airline plane for Israel.

In spite of the tension, however, Farabee says the group was welcomed in all countries. Israel met them with television cameras and reporters, stressing American tourists could not be stopped by the ambush and plane bombing.

His tour followed the group of tourists of which Mrs. Ertle was a member, and passed within three miles of where the ambush took place. They were in Jerusalem during Mrs. Ertle's funeral, and met the battered blue tour bus in many places.

Farabee said his tour guide in occupied Jordan where the ambush took place was an Arab, while the Ertle party was guided by an Israeli, and the bus driver was also Israeli.

The tour also detoured in the area of the Italian city which was evacuated because of a "slow earthquake." This was on the way from Rome to Naples and Pompeii, and the highway had broken up in the slow upheaval.

Other highlights of Farabee's tour was a morning flight over the Alps, which he said was just magnificent. In addition to the Middle East, and Egypt, he visited England, Greece, Spain, Portugal, and Italy which also included a tour of the Vatican at Rome.

In spite of the tension and roundabout traveling which it necessitated, it is evident that Mr. Farabee had a trip he will never forget.

Mental Health Program Told By Director

If surveys made elsewhere are valid here, one person in five in Holland has a mental health problem.

According to Dr. Floyd Westendorp who spoke of Holland Rotary Club Thursday noon, a comparison study of the Borough of Manhattan and a small town in Canada showed the incidence of mental illness to be 20 per cent in each community.

Dr. Westendorp was recently appointed Director of Ottawa County Mental Health Services. He outlined briefly for Rotarians the new mental health program in Ottawa County.

Noting there is an inclination to ignore matters like mental health problems in the hope they will go away, Dr. Westendorp said initially some people expressed doubt that the new service he heads was needed in Ottawa County. Yet the facts have proved otherwise.

"Since the county started its counseling service and outpatient treatment last June," he said, "our staff has been increased to seven, we have opened four offices in the county, and our patient load has increased by more than 100 individuals per month."

The health service has an office at 15th St. and Van Raalte in Holland, in the county building in Grand Haven, in Hudsonville and Coopersville. The latter office is open only one day a week.

Many of the patients are referred by physicians, according to Dr. Westendorp. Others seek help on their own or are brought in by relatives.

Fees for medical treatment are usually related to the individual's economic means, he said, and in many cases are only nominal. The service presently has a budget of approximately $200,000 a year, most of it in federal funds. Dr. Westendorp predicted this budget will certainly need to be increased, but he could not specify the amount because the extent of the county's need of mental health service is hardly known yet.

He spoke highly of the suicide prevention program instituted by Dr. Robert Brown of Hope College. This service is advertised in The Sentinel and other Ottawa County papers under the telephone number 396-HELP. It is now part of the Ottawa County Mental Health Services, Dr. Westendorp said.

The speaker was introduced by Larry Wade, program chairman. William Lalley was introduced as a new member of Holland Rotary Club. H. J. Thomas presided.

Power Company Doesn't Want Sewage Plant

ALLEGAN — Consumers Power Co., has decided it really doesn't want to operate the city of Allegan's sewage treatment plant.

Attorneys for the utility which recently purchased Allegan's municipal electric plant discovered that the land on which the sewage plant was located was included in the sale.

So, for the usual "$1 and other valuable considerations" Consumers offered to reconvey to the city the four-acre site and easements for an access road.

The agreement approved by City Council Monday night also stipulated that if the land covered in the conveyance was no longer needed for sewage treatment purposes it was to be dedicated for public park use. The plant is located at the end of North Street on the Kalamazoo River.

The council also approved a resolution calling for parallel parking on Hubbard St., for two blocks, from Chestnut to Water St. The change from angle parking will be made as soon as "weather permits."

City Manager Kenneth Bolinger also was authorized to proceed with plans and negotiated contracts for construction of a new 10-inch water main to serve the new Allegan Junior High School which is now under construction on Western Ave., just west of the city limits.

Maroons Fall To Tigers In Overtime

GRAND RAPIDS — Holland Christian's basketball team came to the end of the tournament trail Friday night, as they dropped a thrilling 65-60 overtime game to the number three rated Muskegon Heights Tigers in Calvin College's Knollcrest Fieldhouse.

For three quarters of the game it appeared the Maroons were on their way to their 20th win of the season, as they held an eight point margin going into the fourth quarter. However, in the fateful final eight minute period, the Maroons just couldn't seem to get untracked and the Heights picked up momentum to send the game into overtime.

In the extra session forward Russ Vauters hit four free throws and a basket for the Heights as the Tigers took a 63-56 lead with less than a minute left to play. Ron Scholten tried to get the Maroons back in the game with a pair of buckets, but the damage was done.

Christian jumped out to an early 9-6 lead as Jerry De Groot, Dick Frens, Phil Tuls and Phil De Jonge each notched baskets. The Tigers roared back to take a 16-13 margin at the end of the quarter.

The Maroons went to a zone defense in the second quarter, which proved effective, and Christian began to take control of the ball game. Moving the ball into Frens, the fine senior center connected for five baskets in the quarter, along with a charity toss, as he combined with Tuls to score 17 of Christian's 18 points.

Frens on a basket and free throw tied the score at 16-16 and again scored to knot the count at 18-18. Three field goals by Tuls led the Maroons to a 27-24 lead with a minute left in the half. Vauters, who hit on 12 of 14 attempts from the free throw line, dropped in a pair, which was followed by two baskets from Frens, the last one as the buzzer sounded, and the half ended with Christian on top by a 31-26 score.

After Jim Gordon and Vauters brought the Tigers within two, Tuls, De Groot and Frens combined for a 36-29 Christian lead. With some fine shooting and good defensive play the Maroons increased their advantage to 47-39 at the end of the third quarter.

The fourth quarter belonged to the Heights as Vauters hit a basket and two free throws, Dan Smith three points, and Christian's lead was cut to 47-46. Scholten popped one in for Christian's only basket of the quarter, followed by two at the charity stripe by Vauters and a go-ahead basket by Smith with 3:23 left. Frens then hit four straight from the free throw lane, and the Maroons were back on top 53-50 with 1:50 to go. Vauters made it 53-52, Tuls hit a free one and Lee Vines tied the game at 54-54 with 20 seconds to play. Christian tried to go for one shot but never did

Young Holland Man Seeks Substantial Employment

The Division of Vocational Rehabilitation under the State of Michigan Department of Education works to secure "substantial, gainful activity" for persons who are handicapped in the employment market either physically or mentally. In Holland, Theodore A. Huisman is the coordinator working with Thys Zwiep.

Thys wants substantial gainful activity badly, but is handicapped by cerebral palsy which affects his back and legs. Thus, he has been unemployed for the great percentage of his working-age years. He is not on the welfare lists which are supported by federal and state taxes, and does not wish to be. He wants to support himself, but he needs work.

Thys was born in Alphen-Rijn in the Netherlands in 1946 with cerebral palsy. His family emigrated to the United States in 1950 for the benefit of superior medical services for Thys. His father went into business with his brother here. They have lived at 188 West 15th St. since first coming here.

Thys has two sisters, Mrs. Elsa Dykema who is living in Wyoming and a younger sister, Mari Jo, who is a student practical nurse.

Thys attended Holland Public Schools. In spite of frequent and extended absences — Thys has had surgery 14 times in the 15 years — he achieved an average academic record and received his diploma in 1967.

His favorite course was printing and is now his major skill. Since graduation, Thys has spent much time developing into a radio-bug. He does some repairing and has built a radio himself. Thys is licensed to operate a specially equipped automobile. He can type accurately although slowly.

Thys has never held a permanent position due to his physical handicaps. He has, however, held various temporary employments. He ran an engraving machine for Prince Manufacturing Company. He did assembly work at Ramco, Inc. in Zeeland but was laid off for lack of sufficient work. He did a part-time addressograph job for the Christian schools and has occasionally helped his father at the store.

At 23, Thys lives with his parents, but would like to be more independent. Thys wants to work steadily but he must be able to set his own pace in labor. As a result of the cerebral palsy, Thys has trouble balancing in a standing position and requires crutches for mobility. He is unable to lift heavy objects.

His case first came to the attention of Michigan's Division of Vocational Rehabilitation three years ago on the recommendation of the high school. In that time, Thys has contacted 40 or more possible employers, both on his own and through the division.

Displaying a warm and cheerful personality, Thys is still able to smile when he says "that's life." Unfortunately, repeated frustrations may have additive effects. The question is what will happen to Thys if he does not secure employment.

Thys and Huisman are looking for employment but an employer is needed in the Holland Community.

The Division of Vocational Rehabilitation handles many such cases. The main concern of the agency is to make mentally and physically handicapped persons employable and to find them a job. In this process, a number of services are provided including educational preparation on many levels, also medical services. The cases are referred by everyone from ministers to schools and friends.

All the cases have one thing in common; like Thys, these people need employment and are anxious for substantial, gainful activity.

An employer interested in more information about Zwiep may contact Huisman at 500 Trust Company Building in Grand Rapids.

Consultant Hired For Plan Group

City Council Wednesday night approved the appointment of William Ripatte of Kalamazoo to provide consulting services for the Holland Planning Commission. He will be in Holland for a minimum of one day each month on the day that is now normally reserved for planning subcommittee and Planning Commission meetings.

In addition he will provide comprehensive planning in certain newly annexed areas, possibly revise the existing zoning ordinance and review specific major requests. His compensation rate will be $25 an hour. Ripatte formerly served as planning consultant for Kalamazoo and more recently has been in private business.

Council set two public hearings April 1 at 7:30 p.m., one on an application from Marathon Oil Co. for a fire district variance in constructing a restaurant at 651 East 16th St., and the other from the Board of Public Works for a fire district variance for constructing a garage and storage building at the old Fifth St. power plant.

Councilman Robert Dykstra commented that many requests for fire district variances were being received, and City Manager William L. Bopf expressed the belief that the fire ordinance might have to be reviewed some time soon.

A petition with signatures representing 23 homes in the immediate area of Holland hospital objecting to noise and vibration from hospital power plant was referred to the Hospital Board with instructions to present a progress report to Council in 30 days.

Previous complaints from noise from the air conditioning system resulted in installation of baffles on the equipment. City Manager Bopf said tests have been taken on noise levels but the state has established no tolerance figures, and he said decision is a matter of judgment. He said further tests would be taken later for comparisons.

Billy Noyd, of 161 West 24th St., said he had circulated the petition, obtaining signatures only of those persons concerned with the nuisance, and recommending three residents living in the area employed by the hospital not sign the petition.

Following a public hearing in which no objections were expressed, Council approved a request from Bohn Aluminum and Brass Co. for a fire district variance for constructing an addition at 265 West 24th St.

A communication from the Michigan Municipal League announced the annual regional meeting for all municipal officials in region 5 on Thursday, April 23, at 2 p.m. in Muskegon Heights Holiday Inn.

A notice from Michigan Public Service Commission called attention to a hearing March 24 in Lansing on petition of the C and O Railway Co. to discontinue trains 19 and 20 between Detroit and Grand Rapids.

A letter from the Department of Natural Resources on behalf of the Federal Water Pollution Control Administration notifying applicants for federal aid for the construction of sewage facilities of a change in application procedures was referred to the Board of Public Works.

A letter from the American Legion Band asking the city to consider boosting its annual grant from $3,000 to $3,500 was referred to the city manager for later consideration by Council.

Referred to the city manager was a communication from the Liquor Control Commission requesting Council action on a request of Larry R. Wiersma and Max A. Wiersma for a new SDM license to be located at 1158 South Shore Dr.

Certifications were confirmed for Councilman Dyk, Holland Litho, manager and engineer, $10.68; Councilman Lamb, fire, street and cemetery, $424.60; Councilman Smith, Wade Drug Co., police, fire health and library, $410.34.

A city manager recommendation increasing the hourly rate in the parking meter collection agreement with Peoples State Bank from $2.50 to $3 an hour was approved. The city attorney was instructed to prepare an appropriate amendment to the parking meter collection agreement to reflect the revision.

3 Maroons Named To Star Team

Lynn Loncki, greatest scorer in West Ottawa history and Max Glupker, Holland High's talented forward head the Sentinel's All-Area basketball first team released Wednesday by the sports staff.

The 6'6" Loncki who is called by Coach Jack Bonham as "the finest big boy that I have ever coached" is a four-year varsity letterman for the Panthers. Loncki tallied 368 points this season to bring his four-year total to 1,054 points. The talented center of the Panthers also led his team in rebounds with an average of 13.3 per contest.

This season, Loncki averaged 22.9 in the league and 21.6 overall. His four-year average is a fine 17.3 per contest.

The Dutch had one of the finest driving forwards in the state in Glupker who has been called by Coach Don Piersma as a player that always gives "110 per cent."

Glupker enjoyed by far his best season this year as he finished second in the VCC scoring race to Muskegon Heights standout Lee Gilbert. Glupker averaged 21.9 in the loop and 21.3 for the season.

Other spots on the first team went to Hudsonville's Jim Schutt, Mark Raterink of Zeeland and Holland Christian's standout center Dick Frens.

"Schutt was by far our outstanding player this season," said Coach Andy Ten Harsmelt of Unity. Schut averaged 18.7 per contest and pulled down over 10 rebounds a game for the Crusaders this season.

Zeeland's fine team was made up by the tremendous all around play of Raterink who finished the season as the Chix leading scorer and rebounder.

Raterink, showed the fans what kind of a player he is in the District tournament against the Maroons when he tallied 22 points and plucked off 17 rebounds. "He has been doing that all season," cried Coach Norm Schut of Zeeland.

Schut added, "Raterink is probably the finest player to come out of Zeeland. He has a great chance of becoming a college standout."

Raterink, who broke the school scoring record with 41 points against Kenowa Hills averaged 20 points a game for the Chix and pulled down an average of 18 caroms a game.

One of the reason's Holland Christian went as far as they did in the state tournaments was because of the outstanding play of senior center Frens.

Frens led the Maroons in scoring this season with an average of 16.8 per game and also grabbed off additional 14 caroms per outing.

The talented senior is called by opposing coaches as one of the finest all around players in the state. And Coach Elmer Ribben added, "it was a pleasure having Dick with us this season and I can't say enough for the performance he has given us."

The second team consists of Christian's No. 2 scorer Ron Scholten; the Panthers No. 2 all-time point getter, Les Zomermaand; Fennville's Steve Kupres; Holland High's Jim Helmink and Hudsonville's Ross Phillips.

Helmink closed the season as the fourth leading scorer in the VCC with an average of 15.7 per contest while Zomermaand, has poured in 863 points for the Panthers in three years of competition for an average of 17 points a game.

Kupres, Fennville's sharp shooting cager led the Black Hawks in scoring and was right up there in rebounds while Phillips average 15 points per game for the Eagles and pulled down an average of 14 rebounds per game.

On the third team were Saugattuck's Pete Mocini; Chuck De Pree of Zeeland; Ward Nyhuis of Hamilton; Jerry De Groot of Christian and Fennville's Bob Leslie.

Residents Deplore Removal of Trees

Interest of conservation-minded citizens and the Board of County Road Commissioners clashed in a wooded area on Riley St. near Lake Michigan recently where at least seven trees were cut down by road commission crews.

The trees, some said to be 75 years old, were removed for what the commission claimed were safety reasons.

A summer resident in the Park Township area of Buchanan Beach, Mrs. William Whitsett, charged in a Sentinel Public Opinion letter published Feb. 27, that removal of the Beech and Maple trees was "wanton cutting of trees."

"I feel I have to try to stop this stupid destruction," wrote Mrs. Whitsett from her South Bend Ind. home to another Buchanan Beach resident, William O. Sweet.

"This has truly upset me and I have sent my letter to 'National Wild Life' and the president of the Audubon Society, she added.

Sweet said "what was a charming nature area enjoyed by many people now becomes a sand blow, drag strip and trash dump" by tree cuttings over the past two or three years.

Ronald Bakker, county engineer, said in Grand Haven that road commission crews removed the trees after a summer resident expressed concern over a Beech tree, tipped by a tornadoic wind storm, that threatened to topple across his cottage.

The cottage owner was dismayed when informed that seven trees had been removed. He claimed all he wanted was one tree, a hollow Beech, removed to protect his cottage.

"A foreman checked out the tree," Bakker explained. "He found it was hollow and found two others close-by that were hollow. All were removed."

Sweet acknowledged Beech trees have holes in them and may be hollow but was quick to add "that's the nature of the beasts."

The trees removed were in a public right of way along Riley St., Bakker said.

Sweet asked about reforesting the area with the assistance of a professional tree man so that at least future generations will enjoy "what we have lost."

Bakker said his department was "obligated to maintain highways and if the trees are taken down for safety reasons we don't replace trees simply for the advantage of people living along the road."

Bakker said there was no policy for replacing trees cut from the highway right of way.

Hope Play Provides Rare Theatrical Experience

A sell-out house shared a rare theatrical experience Friday night at a performance of "Spring's Awakening," a tragedy of childhood written in 1891 by Frank Wedekind of Germany, which was presented in Hope College's Little Theatre by a cast of 28 students.

The powerful story, in which the normal questions of adolescents run on collision course with parental inhibitions, was entirely performed behind a scrim curtain on an epic stage which allowed a wide range of stage effects, particularly in lighting. The scrim itself served as a screen for slides and movies which portrayed the thoughts and furthered the action of this dramatic fantasy.

The play which must have proved a shocker in 1891 still was capable of an occasional jolt in today's enlightened world as the plot unfolded in a social message of mindlessness and prudishness.

Perhaps Gerhard Mogow, program notes contained one of the best clues to the thought-provoking drama in a word of caution: "It should be kept in mind that Wedekind's honesty of a missionary zeal which de- of presentation is colored by liberately employs the grotesque to heighten its impact."

Whatever questions the playgoer has it is a matter of the play, not the production, since the latter was a marvel of professionalism directed by John John Tammi with David Crothers as assistant director. Unusual cinematic effects by William De Graaf Jr. were particularly effective and music by Suzanne Guthrie added immeasurably to setting many contrasting scenes. Leading characters Lynda Boven and Michael Boonstra performed with a sensitivity rare to amateurs.

Let the theatre lover be discouraged by what appears to be a gloomy and tragic picture, the play itself is well balanced with fully as many happy scenes as tragic one. In remembering the final impact in a graveyard setting, the thoughtful person is overwhelmed, and tends to forget the happier parts.

The play will be repeated to night at 8 p.m. and again next week on Thursday, Friday and Saturday in the Little Theatre on the fourth floor of the science building.
